

Steven Leverton Prize

A $1,000 prize to be awarded annually to a student who, in the judgment of the high school principal, assistant principal and counselor, (and, at the discretion of the principal, others familiar with the student) has overcome significant obstacles, personal or academic, or has shown courage and integrity in difficult circumstances. In the event no candidate is identified, the prize shall not be awarded.